

● SECONDARY NOTES

○ Workers of Umbral Alchemy

■ Machine out of order

THE PLAYER IS IN THE EXHIBITION ROOM. IN A BROKEN WINDOW IS THE FOLLOWING NOTE

On the glass of the showcase is a paper attached. Written in a large print:

"Out of order"

There's a smaller handwritten note below, which says:

"Are you going to leave this open? We must be cautious not to lose the lumen inside...lumens do not grow from trees..."

○ Different rocks

AFTER PASSING THE FIRST TEST, THE PLAYER WALKS THROUGH THE PASSAGES

On top of a box, the player finds an official "Umbral Alchemy" document:

"Umbralita:

Minerals found while our workers were exploring [words crossed out, illegible]. Rocks with properties never seen before. When they react to specific conditions: a light [words crossed out, illegible], they materialise. When the conditions listed above cease to occur, they disappear. This is unprecedented!"

Below there's another description:

"Stones [words crossed out, illegible]:

Minerals found in [words crossed out, illegible] lumenstones.

Only small samples were found, evoking [words crossed out, illegible] regarding their size. Is there a larger ore, capable of giving [words crossed out, illegible] proportional?

Compatible use of [words crossed out, illegible] with:

[words crossed out, illegible]

"Umbral Alchemy" scanner

[words crossed out, illegible]

Most of [words crossed out, illegible] of "Umbral Alchemy"

Each description will be accompanied by a photograph. If there is not enough space, this note will be split into 2 separate documents.

■ General panic

ON LEVEL 2 THERE IS A SMALL HIDDEN ROOM BEHIND THE FOSS STONE.

Inside that hole are several notes from "Threshold Alchemy" employees, in which you can sense a general panic among the workers:

"Lucky Matt came up with the idea of designing these hidden rooms. It's perfect, Bill won't notice, he never notices these little variations in the design.

Sometimes, when I think about it, I feel bad talking about him behind his back, but then I think that he's hiding things from us, too, and I get over it. We have been building tests on his orders for months, and he still hasn't explained what he wants them for. These are not small lab tests. He seems to have a bigger goal. What is it?"

■ Recreation of the test 11

AT LEVEL 5 THERE IS A NOTE HANGING ON THE PEDESTAL TO OPEN THE DOOR.

This note will be invisible. It reflects the ignorance of UA employees about Bill's objectives. In addition, reference is made to Test 11, where the player will arrive later:

"After the finding in Test 11 and the experiments conducted, Bill has asked to reproduce the conditions recreated here as well. I'll pass on doing it, I don't want to gamble on disappearing like the buttons. Why does this man want to complicate things so much? The test was already ready..."

■ Altered test

AT LEVEL 11 A BUTTON CRUCIAL TO THE TEST PUZZLE IS MISSING.

On the very pedestal of this invisible button, there is a note written by a UA employee:

"WARNING:

There is a button here, although you can't see it. It seems to have acquired the properties of the Umbralita.

DO NOT TOUCH. ITEM UNDER INVESTIGATION."

■ Tic Tac Toe

AT LEVEL 14, NEXT TO THE DOOR IN THE PRESSURE PLATE TEST, IS A NOTE.

On this note, hanging next to the door, is the defiance of Bill's orders from one of the staff:

"Sofía, while we wait for Bill to give us the final combination for this section, I have posted a temporary combination. I've based it on the game of Tic Tac Toe that we played last night when we stayed up late. I hope you remember the move I made to beat you ;)

Matt"

■ Cleanup against the odds

AT LEVEL 14, AT THE ENTRANCE PATH TO THIS LEVEL, THERE IS A NOTE.

This note reflects the urgency of cleaning up the tests, due to a peculiar setback:

"Reminder:

Bill wants all the tests to be clean and presentable as soon as possible, so for all these little notes that you are leaving, please tear them off. Whoever is in charge of this evidence to pick up this note as well. Thank you."

In a different font, written above in a different color, a hostile reply from Matt is noted:

"Now you're rushing us? We don't even have the combination of the plates in the pressure plate section yet! I don't know if I'm going to have time to collect everything, I have another 5 tests to finish yet."

■ Premonition meeting room code

ON LEVEL 15, IN THE ELECTRICITY ROOM IN SQUARE A, A NOTE IS FOUND ON THE FLOOR.

The note will be next to the button, half hidden:

"We have to stop meeting here, Bill is getting suspicious. I intercepted a letter that was addressed to Kevin and got the new code to the meeting room. We will finally know what Bill's objective is with this evidence. Let's come up with a plan, I got the keys to the room above the cafeteria. We're going to meet there from now on.

Matt"

■ Meeting room code

ON LEVEL 15, IN THE WORKERS' BREAK ROOM, YOU WILL FIND A NOTE.

The note is on the main table, which will be related to but is smashed:

To: Kevin

From: Bill

This message has been sent to all department heads: I have changed the password for the meeting room, as some worker discovered the old code and tried to sneak in to get confidential information out into the open. The new password is: 1 5 2 9.

Please do not disclose the information to anyone to whom it does not belong."

■ Information sheet TS6

ON LEVEL 15, IN THE TEST SUBJECT RESULTS ROOM, YOU WILL FIND A NOTE.

The note will be the SP6 information sheet after the analyses done:

Name: [hidden]

Age: [hidden]

Sex: [hidden]

Blood group: O- | Marital status: Widowed | Children: 1
daughter

Background: His partner passed away after a heart attack caused by a genetic disease. Social services took his daughter at the age of 5 years and 6 months due to the subject's financial situation. It appears they were very close. Police had to use force to face the parent's (and daughter's) resistance to being separated.

Observations: The tests were proceeding normally when I inadvertently approached with a piece of energy stone, it gave a slight spark. Vital signs were not altered."

■ Energetic Rock information sheet

ON LEVEL 15, IN THE STONE RESULTS ROOM, YOU WILL FIND A NOTE.

The note will be the energy stone information sheet after several experiments:

"Energetic Stones:

The power of these stones seems to have no limits:

- The energy they bestow is x3 times greater than ever seen on planet Earth, surpassing nuclear fusion.
- The focus powered by these stones are capable of revealing the Umbralita.

- (Hypothesis) Recently a button was discovered missing from a test. Most likely the energetic stone was the cause. Further experiments will be conducted with the aim of discovering the truth.

What more properties do these stones hide?"

■ Lunar recipe

ON LEVEL 16, IN THE KITCHEN, THERE IS A SPECIAL RECIPE.

The lunar recipe will contain 4 rounded numbers (these are 3, 4, 5, and 7), indicating the food storage code:

"Ingredients: Lunar Stew of Quinoa and Microalgae Protein (Serves 4 hungry employees)

1. 200 g of cooked hydroponic quinoa (grown in agricultural module)
2. 150 g of textured microalgae protein (produced in bioreactor)
3. 1 dehydrated onion (reconstituted with recycled water)
4. 3 freeze-dried carrots (rehydrated)
5. 2 garlic cloves (grown in agricultural dome)
6. 500 ml of synthetic vegetable broth (reconstituted)
7. 4 tablespoons of rapeseed oil (from lunar cultivation)
8. Low-sodium lunar salt
9. Black pepper (stored, Earth origin)"

■ Control room LVL 15

ON LEVEL 15 YOU WILL FIND THE INSTRUCTIONS FOR TURNING OFF THE LIGHTS.

The instructions will show the following:

"To turn off the lights in all of QUADRANT A, you must follow the following safety steps:

1. Follow the order of the panels.
2. Leave the lights on or off, as indicated:
Green outline --> Light must be on.
Gray outline --> Light must be off.
3. Once completed, continue to the next panel until all (three in total) are completed.

WARNING: The blackout also affects the lights capable of materializing Umbralita."

■ Missing poster

AFTER PASSING THE FOURTH TEST, THE PLAYER WALKS THROUGH THE PASSAGES:

On the wall, a handwritten note by a scientist from "Umbral Alchemy" is hanging, addressing all his colleagues:

"To all my colleagues:

While we were preparing test number 06, my favourite poster disappeared. I had hung it up on the wall to liven things up while we were setting up these damn tests. It seems, though, that someone liked it too much and decided to take it. I beg that whoever stole it from me, returns it immediately to my room. I don't care who it was, I want it back, it's a gift from my deceased mother. Shame on you, assholes."

This note is signed by someone called "Sofía".

The poster itself depicted a paradisiacal place on Earth, where Sofía and her mother had spent the summer years ago.

■ Use what you have learned

THE PLAYER WAKES UP IN THE AREA OF THE STRETCHERS.

Before leaving the room, where a light focuses on the note, Sofia encourages the player:

"Use everything you've learned so far. You are too special to disappear. I hope to see you soon."

● Test subjects

○ Commons

■ Task distribution

ON LEVEL 3 OF THE THRESHOLD WORLD, IN THE INVERTED HIDDEN AREA, THERE ARE 4 TEST SUBJECTS LIVING TOGETHER.

In the central area where the ventilation duct is located, the TSs hang there the tasks assigned to each one:

"Task apportionment:

Crossed out Search for food → T.S. 2 Crossed out

Search for useful materials → T.S. 4

Search for a way out → T.S. 3

■ Test subject 1

● Coconuts

IN THE FOURTH TEST, HIDDEN UNDER THE FLOOR ARE TWO COCONUTS:

Next to the coconuts can be found a note, written on a crumpled and stained, unofficial Umbral Alchemy paper, by Test Subject 1 (TS1):

"I've already passed the first tests, it's quite different from what I imagined. So far I'm doing well and the guide recognises that, which is comforting. I don't know how many tests are left but I need to finish soon, not knowing how you're doing makes me uneasy. You just have to hold on a little longer, the money for the operation will be here soon.

Although your illness made you forget about me, I'm not forgetting you. Separated from the rest, the following can be read as a signature. We've been "the most hard-headed coconuts" since kindergarten, you will always be in my heart, my friend".

Below on the right hand side of the paper is a drawing of a pair of coconuts, with the names Liam and Trev.

● TRlam and LEv

ON THE THIRD LEVEL OF THE THRESHOLD WORLD, IN THE HIDDEN ZONE, EACH TEST SUBJECT LIVES IN A PERSONAL HUT.

In one of those, the following note can be found next to a painted coconut. The note shows how madness has entered taken over SP1:

"Coconut1, Coconut2, Coconut3, Coconu4, Coconu5, Cocon6, Cocon7, Cocon8, coco9, coco10, coco12, coco13, coco14. No.

Only cocol, coco2. thE other coconuTS loOk at us BadLY, terribly. We aRe TRiam and LEv. why ARE you leAVing? i'm goOD, you? they DON't undersTaNd. i aChIEved my GOaL. Come Back.

I'LL saVe yOu. PLeaSE."

■ Test Subject 2

- In search of food

ON THE THIRD LEVEL OF THE THRESHOLD WORLD, IN THE HIDDEN AREA, EACH TEST SUBJECT LIVES IN A PERSONAL HUT.

In one of those, the one with a hole in the back, dwells SP2, where he has a food storage for himself. Inside the hut is a note:

"At last my greed was of some use. What once was my destruction has now saved my companions. We discovered that here it is not necessary to eat. In fact, eating damages the internal organs. I need to store more food, I have to keep them from eating. Sometimes I eat out of gluttony. And it hurts. And I go back to eating more. The others look at me funny. But they don't have food. I do. They must be envious. I save them from damaging their internal organs and this is how they treat me."

■ Test subject 3

- Family of chicks

ON LEVEL 1 OF THE UMBRAL WORLD YOU WILL FIND 3 CHICKS PLACED AS AN 'ALTAR':

Next to the chicks you can find a note, written on a crumpled and stained, unofficial Umbral Alchemy paper by TS3:

"Your loss somehow ended my life as well. It has brought me to an unusual, lonely place. Sometimes I can hear your voices. I don't know if I am going nuts or if you are really standing by my side. They seem real. Very real. Separately, in conclusion, you can read the following. I think I'm going to stay here, with you. I have finally found the peace I so longed to find in life."

- Viewpoint

ON LEVEL 3 OF THE THRESHOLD WORLD, AT THE NATURAL VIEWPOINT, THERE IS A DIRECT VIEW OF THE ESCAPE DOOR.

Next to one of the rocks on that overlook, there is a note, showing TS3's homesickness and the madness that plagues her and her companions:

"Sometimes, when I get overwhelmed, I come up here to look at that monolith. It seems off. I wonder if it can be turned on somehow. I had to leave the place where I honored you and set up an altar. I saw a human figure and decided to follow it. There are people here who are like me. Although I am afraid they are not as strong. Two of them have already lost their sanity. I don't know if I'm going to hold on any longer. I have stopped listening to you."

- The monolith

ON THE THIRD LEVEL OF THE THRESHOLD WORLD, IN THE HIDDEN ZONE, EACH TEST SUBJECT LIVES IN A PERSONAL HUT.

In one of those huts, one observes a stack of papers with drawings of the monolith, Bill's eyes, the energy stone... TS3 observations. Among those papers, you find the following note:

"This dimension has some very strange properties. Gravity can be changed at will by means of a tiny stone. Everyone claims to have found it in a different place. Also, if I stare into the void for a long time, I feel that something is watching me. It's very unpleasant. And the monolith. That monolith. It has to mean something. My goal is to find a way out, but I get more doubts than answers."

■ Test Subject 4

- Strange place

AFTER PASSING THE SIXTH TEST, THE PLAYER WALKS THROUGH THE PASSAGES:

The player finds another handwritten note lying on the ground, half-hidden. It seems to have been written quickly. It says:

"I don't know where I am. I thought it would be just small tests in a lab and I could go home right away. Instead, I've been here for days, feeling unwell. I have not yet assimilated the properties of these rocks. Where did they come from? Were they created by them? What do they want from me? Why do they need people to complete these tests? Where are the other test subjects? I haven't seen anyone yet, not even staff from the organisation. Just this damn voice that is giving me a headache. I don't like this."

- TS4 prompts to use the scanner

INSIDE THE THIRD TEST IS THIS NOTE.

In the room where the player has to hit the button that turns on the light a note will be found in which TS4 talks about the scanner and the overwatching of the facility.

"To whom it may concern:

At first I thought the scanner was a pretty useless tool, until I saw what's hidden around the facility. Investigating with the thing I realized that there are some invisible graffiti on the walls (HOW IS THAT POSSIBLE!?).

Thanks to the detachment I think I have found a blind spot where the cameras can't see me. I hope this note reaches someone. I'm losing my mind not being able to talk to anyone."

- The others

ON THE THIRD LEVEL OF THE THRESHOLD WORLD, IN THE HIDDEN ZONE, EACH TEST SUBJECT LIVES IN A PERSONAL HUT.

In one such hut is the following note among shattered cameras, open lights... with tools to unravel these mechanisms, in a very paranoid way.

"We have definitely lost Test Subject 1 and Test Subject 2. It sounds very cold to call them that, but they don't even remember their names. What kind of name is Triam? We finally decided to call each other by the order of arrival at this damn facility. Has the amount of time inside this place made them unhinged? The only ones that remain sane are Test Subject 3 and I. She's looking for a way out and I'm looking for some useful information and materials. But I find nothing but cameras and spotlights, and she does nothing but stare at the monolith. We are lost."

■ Test Subject 5

- Sparks

IN THE NINTH ALCHEMY THRESHOLD TEST, ON THE HANGING WALKWAYS, THERE IS A NOTE.

In the middle of the light maintenance walkways, you will find the note from SP5:

"My scanner is getting more and more unstable, it feels like it's going to explode sometimes. It has already given me a couple of sparks, but very mild. I've been trying to get rid of this one, but Bill asks me to carry it with me all the time, telling me that it will be useful for the next tests. It's been useful so far, but I'm starting to be afraid that something might happen to me with the scanner on me."

- Broken scanner

ON THE SECOND LEVEL OF THE THRESHOLD DIMENSION, AT THE END OF THE SECONDARY PATH, IS A NOTE.

Next to a broken scanner, the note reflects frustration and despair after running out of this one:

"My scanner is no longer functional. All the notes I wrote in your honor, the clues I left in the labyrinth..., I will never read them again. Little by little I am going to forget them. I am going to forget about you. I am afraid."

- Portal off

ON THE SECOND LEVEL OF THE THRESHOLD DIMENSION, RIGHT NEXT TO THE PORTAL TO THE REAL WORLD, A NOTE WRITTEN ON PAPER APPEARS.

This note describes how SP5 sees the gate, showing the clear differences in how the player sees it:

"What is this monolith? It has a dark light, looks dull, as if it could be turned on... It emanates some energy, but it seems contained inside. How the hell do I turn this thing on? WHAT SHOULD I DO? Is it even my way out of here?"

- PINTADAS INVISIBLES

- Tests subjects

- Test subject 5

- Hell

IN THE SECOND LEVEL OF THE THRESHOLD DIMENSION, THE PLAYER FINDS A FIRST NOTE, OF WHICH ONLY THE END IS READ.

On a wall, written with an unknown material that functions as the Umbralite, the last words of it can be read. There is a light that illuminates them, that's why they are seen. If the player would like to see the whole note, he must use the scanner or move the light to materialize the whole sentence. The note is as follows:

"Is this what hell looks like? I can hear you but I can't find you. I miss you, gang."

- The beginning is the end

IN THE SECOND LEVEL OF THE THRESHOLD DIMENSION, THE PLAYER FINDS A FIRST NOTE.

Written on the wall, with a material that acts as the Umbralite, a sentence in which one can distinguish traits of madness reads:

"THE END IS THE BEGINNING IS THE END IS THE END IS THE BEGINNING IS THE END IS THE BEGINNING IS THE END IS THE BEGINNING IS THE BEGINNING IS THE BEGINNING IS THE END IS THE END IS THE BEGINNING."

- Notes Abyss

- Daughter

- Note 1

AT THE END OF BILL:

Some notes come out of the monolith. The first reads as follows:

"A few months ago I got out of the juvenile facility where I was committed. I still remember you telling me that when I walked out the door of the facility you would be the first thing I would see, hug and kiss. But it wasn't like that. They left you for dead.

Ever since I left I hear a voice insisting that you are safe, in a better place. Is that heaven? Is God talking to me? I prefer to think so, because otherwise it's a clear sign that I'm going crazy."

■ Note 2

AT THE END OF BILL:

Some notes come out of the monolith. The second reads as follows:

"I can't take it anymore. I was saving the kisses and hugs to fulfill what you told me, but I know it won't be possible anymore. It's been 10 years since I left the center. My new parents seem to love me. I didn't want to replace you, but I can't resist anymore, they take care of me and give me everything I need. I finished college this year thanks to them. I think I'm starting to love them too, does that make me a bad daughter?

I keep thinking about what the voice in my head told me...
Where are you? Why don't you come and get me? Who does this to their own daughter!? I'd like to see you again."

■ Note 3

AT THE END OF BILL:

Some notes come out of the monolith. The third reads as

"I have started my own family. I got married some time ago and we have a 5 year old son. That's the age I was when we were separated.

Today the voice spoke to me again. It tells me to go with my family to a safe place. Is that where you are? It insists that the inevitable is going to happen, that I should be prepared. I'm going to try to take care of them, but I'm afraid I won't be able to."

■ Note 4

AT THE END OF BILL:

Some notes come out of the monolith. The fourth and final one reads as follows:

"It's been 30 years since the war started and it is still going. It seems that I was not the only one who heard the voice, but neither did everyone. One group of fanatics insisted that only the chosen ones heard it, while the others branded them as crazy. This started it all.

I almost lost my family, but we made it to the shelter. These have not been the best years of my life, but I have spent them with them... That is enough.

I'm getting weaker every day... But I'm ready. When I think of you, I find it harder and harder to remember your face. Maybe it's time to see you and get to the place where you are, the place the voice told me about. I'm looking forward to seeing you again."
