

GENERAL SCRIPT UNLIGHTED:

TIMELESS PHRASES (DEPENDING ON THE PLAYER'S SITUATION IN EACH GAME)

PLAYER TAKES HIMSELF FROM ONE LEVEL TO ANOTHER FOR THE FIRST TIME.

The player thinks he is smarter than Bill (and the game itself) and tries to beat the tests by taking a light bulb from a previous level. When he reaches the next level, the bulb stops working and Bill explains to the player what happened.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

I'm afraid what you're trying to do is not possible. Every light has a radius of action, if you move it the slightest bit, its setting is overridden and it becomes unusable.

PREDETERMINED PHRASES (ALWAYS OCCUR AT THE SAME MOMENT IN THE GAMEPLAY)

EARTH MENU

THE PLAYER HAS NOT YET ENTERED THE GAME. IT IS THE FIRST TIME OR HE HAS CLICKED ON "NEW GAME"

The player stands in a luxurious room, with a large logo in front of him that says: "Umbral Alchemy". On the table closest to him is a cup with the same logo and a contract. The exit is behind it.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Welcome to "Umbral Alchemy", candidate number 6.

Please, note that in front of you is a non-disclosure agreement that you will have to sign if you want to be part of a great social initiative and be someone in this world. Apart from making a lot of money, of course.

(There is a brief silence)

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Next to you there is also coffee that you can drink, if you need to think it over. I wouldn't think too much, though. At the end, what are you going to do if you don't sign? Sleep under a bridge as you used to? To be honest, I wouldn't feel like it.

THE PLAYER HAS BEEN THERE FOR 30 SECONDS AND STILL HASN'T SIGNED

The voice is getting impatient: it needs the player to sign but at the same time doesn't want to show its eagerness.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(He coughs) The pen has no ink? I can ask someone to change it for you. It should work perfectly, though; it's new. Maybe you can try signing the contract... and so you check that writes properly.

THE PLAYER INTERACTS WITH THE CONTRACT, HE HASN'T SIGNED IT YET

The voice gets excited because the player shows interest in the contract.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Yes! You're on the right track! Pick up the pen next to you and sign the contract, no strings attached. You don't need to read it for too long, in the end, it's just a mere formality.

Don't make an effort to read the fine print. If you find it hard to understand what it says, I will explain it to you once it is signed..

THE PLAYER SIGNS THE CONTRACT

The voice has achieved its goal.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Very good decision! You won't regret it. The previous candidates didn't do it. You can ask them yourself if you find them. Oh, and let us know if you do it, we'd love to know what they've become since the communications failed. (He coughs nervously) Anyway, congratulations.

You are now officially part of "Umbral Alchemy", test subject number 6. We're going to have a great time.

BIG HALL

BIG HALL

The player leaves the room and enters the big hall. He sees a huge stone in front of him, bombs, vending machines...

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Welcome to the Umbral Alchemy facilities. We hope you slept well and are ready to get started. I'm Bill, the person in charge of guiding you through all the tests.

DECONTAMINATION ROOM

The player moves forward and arrives at the decontamination room. He is about to be gassed.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

For the purpose of the research, we need to decontaminate every living organic element that will come in contact with the Umbralita. Don't worry, you won't lose consciousness this time.

EXHIBITION ROOM

The player enters the showroom for the first time, where there are 4 showcases.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Before we start with the tests, please take a moment to explore the exhibition showcasing anomalous phenomena that will be central to the upcoming tests. We recommend interacting with each display case to familiarize yourself with the various phenomena being studied.

LEVEL 1

LEVEL 1 - SCANNER

The player obtains the scanner.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Thanks to this scanner, developed by "Umbral Alchemy", you will be able to observe what the average human being is not able to see. Use it as often as it is convenient for you, it won't run out of battery life.

LEVEL 1 - FINAL

The player opens the final door of the level, he has completed it perfectly.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(Excited) Congratulations! You have completed the first test of our investigation. This is a brief reminder that everything you see during these tests is confidential and you will not be able to share these experiences with any family member, friends, or acquaintances. Although I remember you had no one, right? That won't be a problem then.

LEVEL 2

LEVEL 2 - MID-TEST

As the player struggles to solve the next challenge, the voice brings up his past, related to his last statement.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Wait... You do have a relative in the real world: a daughter.

But I have no information on where you live. How is that possible? (Pause) Oh, no... Do you have no shame? (To himself)

Poor thing...

LEVEL 3

LEVEL 3 - FINAL

The player presses the button to unlock the door required to complete the test.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(Excitedly, with an ironic tone) You are among the five test subjects who made it the furthest. One failed the first test..

Poor bastard, he won the lottery and ended up losing everything. He came here looking for more money, but didn't find what he was looking for... If you ask me, I think he focused on the wrong goal.

LEVEL 4LEVEL 4 - MID-TEST

The player enters through the door into Level 4. After a few seconds, allowing the player to observe the environment, the voice speaks.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

As you can see, our test designers really enjoyed working with trenches and jumps. I believe one of them even had a pet rabbit. Regardless, these challenges have been designed this way for your training.

LEVEL 5LEVEL 5 - START

After crossing the door and entering the level, the guide speaks again, this time commenting on the player's physical and mental state.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

I didn't want to say anything to avoid affecting the research, but when you ran the scanner during the first test, I noticed a spark. From what I can see, you are feeling well and are able to continue the tests. (Pointing to himself) There are no signs of dizziness or disorientation, and balance is maintained without issue. Interesting...

LEVEL 5 TO 6 - PASSAGES

The player exits Level 5 and heads to Level 6.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

The next test to perform requires a higher IQ than the previous one. How developed is your spatial vision? Do you have spatial vision? What a stupid question, you are here for a reason. I am confident that you are THE subject.

LEVEL 6

LEVEL 6 - FINAL

The player has successfully completed Level 6, opens the door and the voice intervenes.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(Confident) I knew it! I knew you could do it. But don't claim victory yet, see how the next tests go, you still have a long way to go.

LEVEL 7LEVEL 7 - MIDDLE OF THE LEVEL

The player continues the test as usual when Bill unexpectedly speaks up:

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Fun fact: I had my favorite employee design this test. Feel free to criticize it as much as you want. (Pause) You seem to be enjoying it, but stop pretending. The person who made this is... no longer with us. Seriously. You should hate this test.

(Bill tries to make a deal) If you just stand there and complain about how bad it is, I'll understand. Actually, I'll even support your protest by holding a minute of silence.

If the player stands still for 1 minute, Bill will talk again. Steam will also award an achievement to the player.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Wow! You really hated this level! You've been standing still for a while! You can now move on. Head into the next room, I've got a gift for you as a reward for your great taste.

The gift turns out to be a cake, found in the next room of the passage.

LEVEL 8

LEVEL 8 - MID-TEST

If the test subject steps on and off the pressure plate before placing the moving spotlight on it, Bill will comment as follows, in a mocking tone.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (AWARENESS)

(Mocking) Oops... I guess that's not how it was... Have you tried physically duplicating yourself? (Pause, now talking seriously) I tried, but I couldn't.

LEVEL 9LEVEL 9 - MID-TEST

While the player is in the middle of the test, Bill's suddenly remembers Sofia after thinking he sees her through one of the facility's cameras.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Sofia? (Agitated) Sofia, wait! (Bill feels the closest thing to love it will ever feel) I just want to talk! Why are you running away? I would never hurt you, Sofia. (To the player)

Test subject number 6, if you ever see a woman in these facilities, tell her to show herself. I just want to talk.

LEVEL 10

LEVEL 10 - FINAL

Bill opens up to the player, but doesn't provide many details.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(Thoughtful) Can I ask you something? How would you apologize to someone you love, after failing them? Not just failing, but hurting them. Do you think your daughter will forgive you?

(Pause) Do you think Sofia will forgive me?

LEVEL 11

LEVEL 11 - FINAL

As the player opens the door to the final test, Bill speaks about Sofia once again.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(Lamenting) Why did I do that? I became obsessed... I just wanted to know... Wait. It wasn't me... (Bill realizes something, remembering who it is and why it's here) Sofia? I know you're listening. It wasn't me, it was Bill! I'm not Bill... (Pause) So... who am I?

LEVEL 12

LEVEL 12 - FINAL

Bill worries about the player's health.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

I see you've been able to pass this test as well... That's impressive, considering you've fainted a couple of times... But what's even more impressive is that you've come back...

LEVEL 13

LEVEL 13 - MID-LEVEL

Bill brings up Sofia again.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (IA)

By the way... both times you were unconscious, Sofia has shown herself. I find it very difficult to follow her, she knows the facilities better than me and takes advantage of blind spots very well. I have seen her very close to you, but I can't do anything to make her pay attention to me. She seems very angry. You don't need to say anything to her if you see her.

She has reasons to feel that way.

LEVEL 14 (ALARM)LEVEL 14 - START

After entering what will be the player's final trial, Bill hears a loud noise and decides to stop observing the player to investigate.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(Confused) Did you hear that? This doesn't sound good... Can I trust you to stay here on your own? Don't mess things up, please. I'll be right back.

LEVEL 14 - FINAL

The explosions are near this time. There are interferences.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Run to the nearest emergency exit, hurry!

The player loses contact with the voice for good. He needs to leave through the emergency exit if he wants to survive.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - LEVEL 3

END OF THE LAST LEVEL IN THE UMBRAL DIMENSION

As the player sees the exit door and runs toward it, the ground shakes and the path becomes harder. Then, an unknown voice is heard: Sofia.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - UNKNOWN VOICE (SOFIA)

(Believing in the player) Only you can stop it... Come on, wake up! There must be someone who hasn't forgotten you yet... Who ties you to this world... Think about that person... She hasn't forgotten you...

LEVEL 15 (INFIRMARY)LEVEL 15 (NURSING) - MID-LEVEL

When the player enters quadrant B of the facility, Bill (CONSCIOUSNESS) contacts him again.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

Test subject number 6? You're alive! It's good to see you! (He regains composure) Listen... We have a serious situation, and you're the only one who can help. When I went to investigate, I saw Sofia near the portal that Bill created to find out where all the subjects went when they vanished. Somehow, she blew up the portal. Anyway, long story short: You need to get as close as possible to the explosion's origin and try to fix this. I don't know how, but I'll figure it out. For your daughter's sake, trust me.

LEVEL 16 (CAFETERIA)LEVEL 16 - START

When the player sees the map of the cafeteria, Bill will tell him what the plan is.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

I think I've thought of something. Do you like rats? Maybe you'll have to crawl like one. In the cold storage behind the kitchen I'm seeing that there's a hole you can crawl through, although you might have to climb a bit. However, I believe it's the best option we have.

LEVEL 16 - IN THE MIDDLE OF THE LEVEL

When the player picks up the energy stone and changes gravity, Bill is surprised.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

How did you do that?! (Realizing) Oh, that'll make it easier for you to get through the hole in the cold storage I mentioned. (Pause) I wish I could do that too... But I have a confession to make... (Being honest) I don't have a body. At least, not a physical one. When we met I introduced myself as Bill, but I'm not him. The human Bill transferred his consciousness to this facility to ensure that the tests were still running normally. At first I didn't remember everything that happened, but when I saw Sofia the memories flooded back. What Bill did was horrible. Really horrible.

LEVEL 17 (OFFICES)LEVEL 17 - START

The player manages to escape through the hole by changing gravity. They appear in a hallway.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

We're getting closer. Just keep going straight down this -hallway and you should reach my office -well, Bill's office. There, in a secret room, he created some kind of portal that leads to... (Thinking) I don't really know where it will take you, but I think you've already been to that place.

When the player reaches the HUB, Bill reacts.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

That's strange... I think my office isn't where it's supposed to be. We're getting closer to the source. Reality is becoming more and more unstable. Be careful.

LEVEL 17 - MIDWAY

The player completes the puzzle in the destroyed HUB. Bill (CONSCIOUSNESS) manifests again.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(In pain) Sofía, what are you doing? Don't go in, Sofía. No, it's too dangerous! (Now addressing the player) Test subject, you must hurry. Sofía has crossed the threshold. I fear the worst. She knows the original Bill went through after he killed all his colleagues. I don't care what happens to him, but don't let anything happen to Sofía. Hurry, please.

When the player reaches the drive-in theater area, in front of the screen playing Le Voyage dans la Lune, something stirs in Bill's (CONSCIOUSNESS) memory.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

This place... It feels familiar. I think I've been here before.

When the player reaches the arcade island, Bill
(CONSCIOUSNESS) begins to understand what's going on.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

I used to spend my afternoons here as a kid. I wanted to hold the high score in every game. I loved this place.

NIVEL 17 - PRE-FINAL

The player discovers the secret room containing the source code and base consciousness of Bill.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(Surprised) We finally met. You're better looking in person.

I hope you got the same impression of me. Anyway, you've found the room where Bill hid me, but he's still in the other world and trying to escape. Don't waste any more time—go stop him.

NIVEL 17 - FINAL

The player reaches Bill's office and attempts to unlock the door leading to the portal.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(Relieved) You made it! Please, get Sofía out of there. If something were to happen to you, I want you to know I'll do everything I can to make sure your daughter is safe. When the time comes, I'll make sure she receives the money you're owed from the contract you signed. I should have access to the door mechanism.

(The door tries to open but fails)

(Frustrated, grunts)

I can't open it. Try looking around —there must be a manual trigger to open the door.

The player opens the door.

UMBRAL ALCHEMY - BILL (CONSCIOUSNESS)

(Farewell tone) From here on out, you're on your own. Good luck, Test Subject Number 6. I believe in you.

BOSSFIGHTPRE-BOSSFIGHT

The player enters the Umbral World. As they move forward in a straight line, Sofía and Bill (ORIGINAL) speak to the player in alternating voiceovers.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - SOFÍA

Your presence is strong. You're walking with purpose—I like that. I'm glad you came. Don't be afraid, I can speak with all the test subjects trapped in this world. I've learned quite a few skills since I first entered this place years ago—this is one of them. All human consciousness is connected within this world. Like a thread linking all minds.

Fascinating, don't you think?

UMBRAL DIMENSION - BILL (ORIGINAL)

Welcome to my world, test subject. As Sofía says, these abilities are incredible... Just imagine being able to use them out there. They would make all of humanity believe I'm a god...

I would be living proof of a higher divinity! But unfortunately, I'm trapped in here...

UMBRAL DIMENSION - SOFÍA

Now you understand why I'm here, don't you? I'm going to need your help to stop this ruthless fool from getting out. We're going to drain the energy from this world, leave it dry. Even if it means we get trapped inside—do you understand? Your daughter deserves a world worth living in, and with Bill, it won't be that way...

UMBRAL DIMENSION - BILL (ORIGINAL)

So you have a daughter... That means someone remembers you...

Test subject, you are the key to getting out of here.

Humanity is greedy, deceitful, and self-centered. I don't want to destroy the world your daughter lives in—I want to reshape it with stronger, better ideals for a greater society. When I leave this place and become a god, I promise your daughter will live a good life. She'll grow up, fall in love, have children, grow old, and die peacefully. And you... you'll get to witness how her life unfolds every step of the way.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - SOFÍA

(With confidence) Don't listen to him. What kind of world would you let your daughter live in? A world ruled by Bill can't be good. Come with me—we need to drain the energy from this world so he can't escape. He needs you to get out, and without you, he won't make it. We have to stop him.

The player will find two paths ahead: One to the left, leading to Bill. One to the right, leading to Sofía. This will be visually indicated through in-world elements, and the player will have been hearing Bill's voice consistently from the left and Sofía's from the right. The player must make a choice.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - SOFÍA

We must stop him—come on.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - BILL (ORIGINAL)

Your daughter needs you.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - SOFÍA

There's no time to waste—humanity is in danger.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - BILL (ORIGINAL)

Don't let your daughter grow up in a world torn apart by injustice.

BOSSFIGHT

If the player chooses to help Bill (ORIGINAL), the choice is confirmed with the following dialogue:

UMBRAL DIMENSION - SOFÍA

(Angry) No! What are you doing? You're about to make a terrible mistake. I won't let you reach the monolith—not for the sake of the world, and not for your daughter.

The player will see a lit monolith, but it will rapidly move away from their position.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - BILL (ORIGINAL)

Don't worry, test subject. I'll help you reach the monolith myself.

A platform will appear in front of the player, making the path easier. At this point, the final game begins, where Bill and Sofía battle to facilitate and block, respectively, the player's path using their abilities to modify the Threshold World.

If the player chooses to help Sofía, their decision will be confirmed through the following dialogue:

UMBRAL DIMENSION - SOFÍA

I knew I could trust you. Now it's your turn to trust me and follow my path. I've got your back.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - BILL (ORIGINAL)

I'll never let you take away what I've been dreaming of all this time. (Desperate, furious) I discovered the Umbralita, I discovered the energy stone, and I will rule the world as if I were its God.

A wall blocks the path the player was following, but another opening appears nearby. At this point, the final game begins, where Sofía and Bill battle to facilitate and block, respectively, the player's path using their abilities to modify the Umbral Dimension.

POST-BOSSFIGHT

If the player chooses to help Bill (ORIGINAL), they will reach a room full of monoliths. All of them will be turned off except for one. They will have to reach that monolith and enter it. When the player enters this room, Bill (ORIGINAL) will speak:

UMBRAL DIMENSION - BILL (ORIGINAL)

That's it! Find the lit monolith and go through it. I'll take the chance to enter with you when you do, and I'll finally be able to escape this place!

When the player goes through the monolith, the screen fades to white. When the screen is fully white, the player is rejected by the monolith and pushed back. They are no longer in the Threshold World. Nor are they in the real one. They are in a world of basic geometric shapes and darkness. The monolith is lit, but cannot be interacted with. After 5 seconds, a note emerges from the monolith. The player can read it. After another 5 seconds, another note. This happens four times. The notes describe events happening in the real world in the words of the player's daughter. Just as Bill promised, the player stays informed about their daughter's condition. After the final note, the monolith turns off. The credits roll with the now-dark monolith in the background. THE END.

If the player chooses to help Sofía, they will reach a large cliff. Below it lies the Umbral Light. Sofía urges the player to jump.

DIMENSIÓN UMBRAL - SOFÍA

There lies the core of this world. I once made it there, but it was too late, as I was already being forgotten. You still have something left to give. Hurry, jump!

The player jumps and enters the Umbral Light. Once inside, they find themselves in a dreamlike place, with a lotus flower connected to a lit monolith – their own. They must interact with the monolith several times to complete the sacrifice. When the sacrifice is complete, Sofía speaks.

UMBRAL DIMENSION - SOFÍA

(Farewell tone) Ironical, isn't it? Her love has been saving you all this time, but now it's time to let it go. All that's left is to embrace the feeling of peace, knowing you've done the right thing.

As Sofía speaks, the flower slowly closes. When she finishes, the flower is fully closed. The credits roll with the flower in the background. THE END.
